How does the District respond when it receives a request for an independent educational evaluation (IEE)?

If a parent or guardian disagrees with the results of a District-conducted evaluation or reevaluation, she or he has a right to request an independent educational evaluation.¹ Any requests for an IEE will be communicated to the Executive Director of Special Programs. The Executive Director of Special Programs is responsible for granting or denying the request for an IEE in writing as an administrative decision, providing the parent or guardian with the District’s IEE criteria, information about how to obtain an IEE, and a copy of TEA’s Notice of Procedural Safeguards. An IEE will be conducted by a qualified examiner who is not employed by the District and who meets the District’s criteria for an independent evaluator.

If a parent or guardian requests a publicly funded IEE, the District will, without necessary delay, take the following actions:

- file a due process complaint to obtain a hearing to prove that the District’s evaluation is appropriate or that the parent’s request does not meet District criteria, or

- grant the request for an IEE that meets District criteria and provide the parent or guardian with the District's IEE criteria.²

If the parent or guardian requests an IEE, the District may ask for the parent or guardian's reason why she or he objects to the District's evaluation; however, the District may not require the parent or guardian to provide an explanation and may not unreasonably delay either providing the IEE at public expense or filing a due process complaint to request a due process hearing.³

The District uses a DIRECT-PAY model to fund the parent or guardian's request for an IEE, if the District in its discretion grants the IEE request. The Executive Director of Special Programs will ensure that the District's IEE criteria includes an explanation of the District's IEE funding model and provides a procedure for a parent or guardian to request an exception to that model.

If a parent or guardian obtains a private evaluation and shares the results with the District, those results, if the private evaluation meets the District's criteria, will be considered by the student's ARD committee in any decision made with respect to the provision of a free appropriate public education to the student.⁴

PRACTICE GUIDE— Review of IEE criteria and the list of IEE providers should occur periodically to ensure compliance and availability. Ascertain whether the parent's selected evaluator is willing to conduct school-based observations and notify the parent of any potential impact when the ARD committee considers the IEE report.

Demonstrations of this procedure's implementation may include, but are not limited to, examples such as:

- Training materials
- Independent Education Evaluator Criteria
- Sample letters notifying parents of the District's criteria and qualified evaluators
